

If you send me an email message at coach@brookebroadbent.com, I'll send you a file in which the URLs are clickable. This will save you the effort of typing in the URLs below.

Resources

There are many Camino resources on the Web. And more every day. Here are a few to get you started. I suggest that you use these to do your own search. Also look for individual sites. Plenty of people have set up their own sites with pictures.

1. My e-book about the Camino. www.brookebroadbent.com
2. American Pilgrims on the Camino <http://www.americanpilgrims.com/>
3. Canadian Camino story, Sue Kenney, making her living out of her Camino experience <http://www.suekenney.ca/>
4. Canadian centre for The Little Company of Pilgrims, <http://www.santiago.ca/>
5. Confraternity of St James, Founded in 1983 to promote the pilgrim routes to Santiago de Compostela <http://www.csj.org.uk/>
6. cycling tour overview with pictures <http://154.20.14.154:88/camino/caminopics.asp?PicId=0&Lang=Eng&Dir=B>
7. Gocamino listserve where people post questions and receive answers. There is an archive. <http://mailman.oakapple.net/mailman/listinfo/gocamino>
8. Map with clickable links to cities along the Spanish Road to Santiago de Compostela <http://www.humnet.ucla.edu/santiago/spancmno.html>
9. News of the Camino <http://www.santiago-today.com/>
10. Québec Association Québécoise des Pèlerins et Amis du Chemin de Saint-Jacques, <http://www.duquebecacompostelle.org/>
11. Tour operators for Camino tours <http://www.csj.org.uk/tour-operators.htm>
12. Weather in Spain <http://weather.yahoo.com/regional/SPXX.html>